'COMMITTEE OF 51.3%' TO HOLD PANEL
DISCUSSION WEDNESDAY, OCT. 27 AT UM

MISSOULA--

The "Committee of 51.3 Per Cent," which represents the views of Democratic presidential candidate Jimmy Carter on women's issues, will present a panel discussion at noon Wednesday Oct. 27, in the Women's Resource Center (WRC) located in the University Center at the University of Montana.

The public is invited to attend the discussion, free of charge.

The committee was organized in response to a visit by Clara Beyer, a member of Carter's National Advisory Committee. Beyer is a women's rights supporter in Washington, D.C.

The panel discussion will include topics such as the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment, discrimination against women by insurance agencies and the legal status of women in America.

More information is available at the WRC, located on the Mall level of the University Center or by calling 243-4153.
